

First Danish History of Nursing Conference

September 28 – 29, 2007

Call for Abstracts

The Danish Society of Nursing History is celebrating its 10th Anniversary in 2007 by arranging the First Danish History of Nursing Conference in cooperation with the Danish Museum of Nursing History.

The conference will be held at The Danish Museum of Nursing History in Kolding.

Keynote speakers:

Professor Sioban Nelson, University of Toronto, Canada,

Professor Marit Kirkevold, University of Aarhus, Denmark

Associate Professor Barbra Mann Wall, University of Pennsylvania, USA.

The conference languages will be English and the Nordic languages. Abstracts from all disciplines are welcome.

Abstract: A one page abstract will be accepted by e-mail. It must state the author(s) name, institutional affiliation, address, phone and e-mail. Abstracts must arrive on or before April 30, 2007. Submit to: museum@dshmd

Secretary of the Conference:

Anne Marie Overgaard

Dansk Sygeplejehistorisk Museum

Fjordvej 152, 6000 Kolding, Denmark

Phone (+45) 76 32 76 76

e-mail: museum@dshmd

Conference information: www.dsr.dk/dshs